

Dedham Vale Society

Annual General Meeting 2006

In May 2006 a reception for existing and potential members was held in the gardens of the magnificent Giffords Hall in Stoke by Nayland. The clear success of this early evening opportunity for members to meet with one another will, in all probability, be repeated in future years.

Giffords Hall

Charles Clover, Environment Correspondent for the 'Daily Telegraph' and Robert Erith, Society President, at Giffords Hall

DVS members and guests enjoying an early evening party held at Giffords Hall